

I think that your stewardship of our airwaves has been terrible and has directly caused the consolidation of media under corporate control and the resulting narrowing of debate in politics. I very strongly oppose a vote that leads to more media consolidation. We can not run a democracy with only a few media sources providing most of the society's information. It will only lead to a more ignorant and poorly informed society. I urge you to retain the current ownership rule for broadcast media.

Ian Taylor
Web Designer-Proprietor
itaylor@nfine.net